“The Heritage of the Blessing” Prophecy
Pastor Dwayne Brewington
Sunday 8 AM Service
February 17, 2008

All will be well with you. All will be well with you. And if there be those that now are trying to press you down, trying to keep you down, all will be well with you. They'll find that the hand of the Lord is on them causing them to fail if they try to cause you to fail because you are now the blessed of the Lord. And that blessing will keep increasing. It will keep increasing 'til it be on you without measure; until you walk in it in its fullest degree. Oh, you've not seen anything yet!

Every door for you is still open. Every opportunity is still out there for you. And you'll walk through the door and experience the glory and the goodness of God; for the hand of the Lord is on your life. And what up to this time hadn't worked out for you, go back and put your hand on it again. What up to this time didn't flow like you thought it would, it is about to open up and flow. There'll be no hindrance for you. There'll be no hindrance for you. There'll be no hindrance for you!

Every place things didn't work out, every place there was shortness, everywhere there was lack – start mixing the Word in your life with faith, recognize that you are the blessed of the Lord – everything your hand is set to - prospers. For these are the days of fullness of blessing; the days of the blessing of God without measure.

Oh, you just wait. You ain't seen anything yet. For some of you, your '07 was hard, your '07 was tough, your '07 was a time when the devil tried his best to kill you, to kill your vision, to kill your dream. But I am restoring those things unto you. And keep your pressure and your faith on them because everything he's stolen he's got to restore seven-fold.

It's your time. It's YOUR time. It's the time of the blessing without measure. Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hallelujah!
