Dear Partner,

Praise the Lord! I pray this letter finds you all blessed and empowered to prosper!

Over the past few days I have reflected on the last three years of my life... and I discovered a paradox. In that period, I experienced the greatest and the worst times of my life. When I look at what my wife went through and the loss of my step-father, it was without question some of the worst times of my life. However, at the same time, God was so faithful and true to His Word that I have to say it was a great time as well because I saw God move and do exactly what He said He would do. As I reflect on what God has brought my family through, I have to say "thank you, God!" I realize that I really don't thank God enough for all He has done for us in restoring me and my family to a "normal" life again!

I also reflected on the fact that we probably don't say "thank you" enough to those around us who have been a blessing to us and have shown us faithfulness. With that in mind, I want to say "thank you" to each of you for your faithfulness towards me, my family and VCCI. Your steadfastness during this period is greatly appreciated and I can't really put into words what it means to me. In short, "Thank you..."

Like me and my family, many of you have gone through some tough times in the last few years and I want to remind you of what the Bible says in Isaiah 61:7 (The Message Bible) "Because you got a double dose of trouble and more than your share of contempt, Your inheritance in the land will be doubled and your joy go on forever." I want you to know that your best days are in front of you and because of what the devil tried to do, you have a right to a double blessing so release your faith for it and declare that you are about to enter God's best for your life.

Remember, even though the devil tried to destroy your life, YOU ARE STILL HERE and YOU HAVE THE VICTORY!

Be Blessed. I love you much...
